I love this game so much this is the perfect game that was ever created I wanna tell you how much you need to buy this game because it has so much potential. So,,,,, It's called A Mazeing Tower Defense.

I fully expected a tower defense where you can build towers in a maze to defend your base.

You can't.

. Really has to be the most boring td game ive ever played.. It is bad, boring and buggy. And that fresh twist is... ever heard of the fisherman in Asterix?. Crap pathing. You try to maze them they just walk around the outside of the map. Save your money.. Oh man, I was gonna give this one a positive review at first. The idea of defending your units from the enemy with walls was completely new to me in a TD. It's flawed, but it was something truly fresh (to me at least!).

But then I kept playing and, well, the content just isn't there. Difficulty ramps up at a snail's pace. Enemies are all the same and boring. You only get 3 towers, they all do basically the same job. You are limited to 25 units....

I liked the idea, I though the visuals were good enough, but the fun just isn't there sadly.

Might be worth just a try for curiosity if you can get it dirt cheap, but otherwise skip it.
